

Corporate Membership

Give your employees unlimited adventures when you become a Newfields Corporate Member today!

Newfields corporate members receive exclusive benefits for company executives, employees, and clients. Benefits may include complimentary general admission extended to all local employees, opportunities to host your own events at Newfields, volunteer opportunities, and more. Please see the grid below for full breakdown of additional benefits.

Beyond tangible benefits, align your brand and set your company apart by supporting arts & culture in Indianapolis. Revenue from corporate membership provides critical operating support for education programs; diversity, equity, inclusion, and access (DEIA) initiatives; conservation efforts, and ongoing operations. All this allows us to continue enriching lives through exceptional experiences with art and nature.
